

City University of Hong Kong
Department of Chinese, Translation and Linguistics
The 14th Conference of the International Association for World Englishes

Conference Schedule

1 Dec 2008 (Monday) – Pre-conference workshop

Registration starts at 8:45am.

Time	Event
	MMR
09:00 – 10:30	Workshop A Organizers: Professor Margie Berns and Dr. Aya Matsuda World Englishes: Theory and Methodology in the Classroom
	Morning tea
11:00 - 12:30	Workshop A Organizers: Professor Margie Berns and Dr. Aya Matsuda World Englishes: Theory and Methodology in the Classroom
14:00 – 15:30	Workshop B Creativity in World Englishes A workshop conducted by Professor Edwin Thumboo
	Afternoon tea
16:00 – 17:30	Workshop B Creativity in World Englishes A workshop conducted by Professor Edwin Thumboo

2 Dec 2008 (Tuesday) – Pre-conference workshop

Registration starts at 8:45am.

Time	Event
	MMR
9:00 – 10:30	Workshop C Organizer: Professor Andy Kirkpatrick 'Informations is confusing us': Variation in World Englishes - Implications for the Classroom
	Morning tea
11:00 – 12:30	Workshop C Organizer: Professor Andy Kirkpatrick 'Informations is confusing us': Variation in World Englishes - Implications for the Classroom
	MMR
14:30 – 17:30	Open Forum Chair: Dr. Andrew Moody

3 Dec 2008 (Wednesday) – Day I

Time	Event
08:45 – 09:15	Registration (Purple zone: open area outside Lecture Theatre 17 and 18)
	LT1
09:15 – 09:45	Opening Ceremony Dr. Jerry Yu, Chief Information Officer, City University of Hong Kong Professor Jonathan Webster, Head, Department of Chinese, Translation and Linguistics, City University of Hong Kong
09:45 – 10:45	Plenary Session Chair: Jonathan Webster Professor Kingsley Bolton World Englishes, Asian Englishes and globalisation
	Morning tea
	LT1	LT2	LT15	LT16	LT17	LT18	P4701	P4703
	Prose and Poetry Reading Session Chair: Xu Xi Ouyang Yu Edwin Thumboo Lijia Zhang	Special Panel Session on Language Companion Course Building a Global Alliance for Web-based Language Learning	Session 1 Chair: Ian Chow	Session 2 Chair: Lisa Lim	Session 3 Chair: Ariane Borlongan	Session 4 Chair: Aya Matsuda	Session 5 Chair: Li Bin
11:15 – 11:45	* This programme is funded by Department of Chinese, Translation and Linguistics, City University of Hong Kong		Moses Adebayo Aremu Pragmatic features in the English language usage in obituary announcement in Southwestern Nigeria	Edgar Schneider Chinese learners' English: innovation, interference, retention?	Nawma careema Haniffa Place of new varieties of Englishes in Kachru's three circles and the notion of hybridisation and intelligibility in Lankan English discourse	Tomiko Komiya Determiners in Japanese English	Harunur Rashid Khan Bangladeshi English: emerged or emerging issue of World Englishes
11:45 – 12:15			Josef Schmied Sentence complexity and clause linking in African academic writing: a critical empirical comparison	May Wong Code-mixing: a corpus study of indigenous Cantonese words in Hong Kong English	Tadashi Shiozawa/ Chika Kameyama Does the study abroad experience increase the tolerance towards a variety of English?	Nicola A Galloway A classroom view of World Englishes in Japan	Muhammad Asim Mahmood/ Chaundry Asim Mahmood A comparative study of the top 100 lexical items of the Pakistani, British and American

							varieties of English
12:15 – 12:45			Mbuk Anthony Utuk The standard of Nigerian English accent	Zhichang Xu Chinese English: linguistic features and pedagogical implications	Verner Bickley World English and the English-speaking union	Reiko Takahashi An analysis of ELF-oriented textbooks and attitudes of Japanese senior-high-school students to the ELF-oriented contents	Rashid Mahmood/ Asim Mahmood Hyphenated compounds in Pakistani English
	Lunch
	LT17				LT18
14:15 – 15:00	Focus Lecture 1 Chair: Bertus van Rooy Professor Kwok Kan Tam Bilingual metaphor: examples from Hong Kong and Singapore writings				Focus Lecture 2 Chair: Daniel R. Davis Professor Ravinder Gargesh Linguistic convergence in India in the context of World Englishes
	LT1	LT2	LT15	LT16	LT17	LT18	P4701	P4703
	Thematic Panel 1 Chair: Cecil L. Nelson Intelligibility, Hybridity and Discourse	Thematic Panel 2 Chair: Stanley van Horn World Englishes in Business	Session 6 Chair: Ian Chow	Session 7 Chair: Edgar Schneider	Session 8 Chair: Chunshen Zhu	Session 9 Chair: Caesar Lun	Session 10 Chair: Peppina Lee	Session 11 Chair: Paul Law
15:15 – 15:45	Tatiana Ivankova Intelligibility of China English Kyutae Jung Perception about intelligibility and features of Englishization in the Asian context	Stanley van Horn Introduction: World Englishes and Global Commerce Nicole Baumgarten The construction of speaker identities in translational Business English: the CEO in letters to shareholders	Anna Susanna Coetzee-Van Rooy From the expanding circle to the outer circle and back: studying abroad experiences of some South Korean speakers of English	Leonard West The exploration of the English usage of EFL learners through conversation analysis: a sociocultural perspective	Gillian Barbara Bickley The role of the small English language press in Hong Kong: can it become a focus for the international dissemination of World Literature in English?	Karen Kow Yip Cheng Electronic English in Malaysia: cyber names in chat rooms and the making of identities	Wendell Glenn Cagape Indigenizing the English language: localizing usage for better understanding	Saran Shiroza “Japanese English”: a local model or negative model?
15:45 – 16:15			Hyun-ju Kim Communicative competence and language identity: what is good or bad English in Korea?	Nobuyuki Hino WE in the expanding circle need our own models too!: quest for equality in World Englishes	Katherine Hoi Ying Chen Shifting styles, shifting identities: English use of overseas returning bilinguals in Hong	Azirah Hashim/ Norizah Hassan Electronic English in Malaysia: the emergence of an on-line variety	Shirley Dita ‘Frankly, how do we use disjuncts?’ (A corpus-based study of adverbial disjuncts in Philippine English)	Mitsuru Shimouchi English phrasal verbs and a style of English spoken by the Japanese

					Kong
	Afternoon Tea
16:45 – 17:15	Cecil L. Nelson Intelligibility, hybridity and discourse: background and evolution	Irina Ustinova/ Zoya Proshina English and Asian influence in advertising in the Far Eastern Russia Suzanne Hilgendorf World Englishes and the transnational media	Kyong Sook Song Language attitudes toward World Englishes: the case of Korean university students	Chan-mi Jung/ Jin-kyu Park A new conception of World Englishes	Genevieve Leung/ Winnie Tang Englishes used by Hong Kong university students: the 'correct' way to write a blog in Hong Kong	Augstin Simo Bobda The attainability of some RP word stress patterns in Cameroon	Ariane Borlongan Dissertation Acknowledgements in Philippine English	Akiyo Joto The intelligibility and its relations to the acoustic characteristics for the English mid central rhotacized vowel produced by Japanese speakers
17:15 – 17:45			Aya Matsuda/ Patricia Friedrich English as an international language: what do we exactly mean?	Jin-kyu Park Is early study-abroad a shortcut to SLA?	Michael Emerson Meyler Sri Lankan English: a distinct South Asian variety	Adeyemi Adegaju From 'Giant' to 'Heart to Africa': re/production and contestation of meaning in the discourse of re-branding Nigeria's inter/national image	Isabel Pefianco Martin Periphery ELT: Policies and Practices of English Teaching in the Philippines	Yuri Nishio/ Masako Tsuzuki Acoustic analysis of phonological features of Japanese EFL speakers: from the perspective of intelligibility

4 Dec 2008 (Thurs) – Day II

Time	Event
	LT1
09:15 – 10:15	Presidential Address Chair: Jonathan Webster Professor Bertus van Rooy (IAWE President, 2007-08) Societal and linguistics perspectives on variability
	Morning tea
	LT1	LT2	LT15	LT16	LT17	LT18	P4701	P4703
	Thematic Panel 3 Chair: Andrew Moody World Englishes and Pop-Culture: Contexts and Creativity	Thematic Panel 4 Chair: Eyamba G. Bokamba WE in Africa: Controversies and Identities	Session 12 Chair: Tatiana Ivankova	Session 13 Chair: David C.S. Li	Session 14 Chair: Jia-Ling Hsu	Session 15 Chair: Shin-ying Huang	Session 16 Chair: Marinel Gerritsen	Session 17 Chair: Nobuyuki Hino
10:45 – 11:15	Phil Benson 'Sexy, Naughty, Bitchy': identity work in online comments on Asian female singers' English language music videos	Eric A. Anchimbe Global identities or local stigma markers: A story of English in postcolonial Cameroon Eyamba G. Bokamba Myths and realities about English in Africa Lioba Moshi The competing forces in the use of English in East Africa	Zoya G. Proshina Approaches to WE in Russian linguistics and pedagogy	Marilu Ranosa-Madrunio Content lexical ties in graduate students' academic papers: a preliminary study	Ran Ao/ Huaqing Hong Discourse particles in Singapore classroom interactions: a corpus-based analysis	Rias van den Doel The need for diversification into native and non-native Englishes as lingua francas	Sarah Fuhrmann/ Christiane M. Bongartz Investigating the variety status of Cyprus English	Le-Ha Phan English as an international language: international student and identity formation
11:15 – 11:45	Alice Chik English as an 'alternative' language in Hong Kong pop music Joseph Sung-Yul Park English, modernity, celebrity, and consumption Korean responses to English in a television commercial	Ludmilla Petrovna Bondarenko/ Victoria L'vovna Zavyalova English as Asian lingua franca: a Russian perspective	Nada Šabec The use of English in the Slovene media	Danica Joy Salazar Modality in student argumentative writing: the case of American, Filipino and Spanish novice writers	Qizhong Chang/ Chonghyuck Kim The semantics of the optional 'one' construction in Singapore English	Sau Pung Chee Beyond the three circles: a new model for World Englishes	Alexander Kautzsch The pronunciation of English by German university students	Anne Schröder/ Susanne Mühleisen Prestige change of contact varieties of English in urban diaspora communities
11:45 – 12:15	Ludmilla Petrovna Bondarenko/ Victoria L'vovna Zavyalova English as Asian lingua franca: a Russian perspective	Li-Yi Wang From Standard English advocates to World Englishes educators	Ying Ying Tan No more ethnic varieties: the Singapore exception to the dynamic model	Paulina Gocheo Code-switching in Philippine television-mediated political campaign advertisements	Daniel Weston Language shift in Gibraltar	Chin Ee Loh Reading the world: reading and identity practices in the context of globalization

12:15 – 12:45	Roger M. Thompson Populism in pop culture: English in a Filipino sitcom		Shing Yue Sheung The postcolonial English lesson	Christopher J Hall/ Rachel Wicaksono World Englishes, vocabulary teaching and the mental lexicon	Breda O'Hara Davies Brunei English: speaking locally	Frances Paola Doplon Philippine tabloid news: English as subservience and resistance	Marko Modiano Variety building in a mainland European Context	Zhiwei Wu Towards the awareness of Englishes in interpreting training: status quo and beyond
Lunch
LT17					LT18
14:15 – 15:00	Focus Lecture 3 Chair: Margie Berns Professor Shikaripur N. Sridhar World English and theories of bilingualism and second language acquisition				Focus Lecture 4 Chair: Dr. Stanley van Horn Professor Andy Kirkpatrick English in Southeast Asia: friend or foe to users and to local languages?
	LT1	LT2	LT15	LT16	LT17	LT18	P4701	P4703
	Thematic Panel 5 Chairs: Kamal K. Sridhar World Englishes and International Call Centres	Session 18 Chair: Verner Bickley	Session 19 Chair: Anna Susanna Coetzee-Van Rooy	Session 20 Chair: John Mountford	Session 21 Chair: Birgit Linder	Session 22 Chair: Gillian Barbara Bickley	Session 23 Chair: Eric A. Anchimbe
15:15 – 15:45	Gail Forey How is solidarity achieved in call centre communication? Kamal K. Sridhar The intelligibility of native speaker English in Indian call centres	Que Van Phan English and other foreign languages in Vietnam: a historical and sociopolitical look	Thomas Schalow Visualizing English: spectrographic analysis of Indian and Japanese English	Päivi Pahta/ Leila Kääntä/ Sirpa Leppänen/ Tarja Nikula/ Anne Pitkänen-Huhta/ Timo Törmäkangas/ Tiina Virkkula/ Henna Jousmäki English(es) in transition: findings of a national survey on the role of English in an EFL country	Yoko Kurahashi New English literatures as reading materials	Claudia Kunschak/ Fan Fang World Englishes: changing sensibilities	Dishon George Kweya Parodying the signifying authority: performing the paradox of coloniality among Abanyole of Western Kenya
15:45 – 16:15		Wannapa	Li Sun/	Dr. N Shantha naik	Martha Michieka	David C.S. Li	Christiane

		Trakulkasemsuk Thai English: complexity or creativity?	Hans Wolf/ Dirk Noel Degree adverbs in Hong Kong and Singapore English	The dialogues between English languages and social, political and gender discourses	World literature and the spread of World Englishes: A not –so-subtle way of bringing World Englishes to the classrooms	WE, ELF, EAP and the four skills: towards truly empowering English curricula in ESL/EFL societies	Meierkord Newest developments in Kenya's Englishes
	Afternoon Tea
16:45 – 17:15	Jane Lockwood Where does communication really breakdown in call centres?	Emily Hunter Lao pop identities and English mixing	Danilo Dayag Quantifiers in Asian Englishes	Marinel Gerritsen/ Warda Nejjari/ Monique van der Haagen/ Hubert Korzilius The effect of Dutch-accented English on RP speakers	Nkem Okoh World Englishes in Nigeria: the example of Chinua Achebe	Noor Suzanne Nasir 'Even though I'm very appreciated with the teacher it's better to have native speaker for the next time': adult students' perceptions of non-native English speaking teachers	Josephine Dzahene-Quarshie The Influence of English on Swahili: for enrichment or death?
17:15 – 17:45		Alok Kumar Das From the language of 'discursive appropriation' to the language of liberation	Umberto Ansaldo/ Lisa Lim Converging Asian Englishes? Singapore English, Hong Kong English and the languages in their ecologies	Leila Anneli Käätä/ Heidi Koskela/ Sirpa Leppänen/ Terhi Paakkinen/ Saija Peuronen Topicalizing English in big brother Finland: a case study of a less skillful Finn		Fergus O'Dwyer/ Leon Bell Maintaining an appreciation of accents
	Venue: Royal Plaza Hotel
18:30 – 22:00	Conference Buffet Banquet and Award Ceremony Royal Plaza Hotel, 193 Prince Edward Road West, Mong Kok (www.royalplaza.com.hk) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Professor Jonathan Webster (Introduction) - Professor Larry Smith (Award Presenter) - Professor Edwin Thumboo (Honorary Guest)

5 Dec 2008 (Friday) – Day III

Time	Event
	LT1
09:15 – 10:15	Keynote Session Chair: Jonathan Webster Dr. KK Luke Stress and intonation of Hong Kong English
	Morning Tea
	LT1	LT2	LT15	LT16	LT17	LT18	P4701	P4703
	Thematic Panel 6 Chairs: Xu Xi/ Kingsley Bolton Linguistic and Literary Creativity in Hong Kong and China	Thematic Panel 7 Chairs: Jonathan Webster/ Rajeshwari Pandharipande World Englishes in World Religions	Session 24 Chair: Lian Hee Wee	Session 25 Chair: Peppina Lee	Session 26 Chair: Vincent BY Ooi	Session 27 Chair: Sui Sang Mok	Session 28 Chair: Martha Michieka	Session 29 Chair: Jane Setter
10:45 – 11:15	Agnes Lam Writing Chinese in English Xu Xi 'Globalizing' English to write Hong Kong	Ahmar Mahboob Islamization of English: a case study of Pakistani English Jonathan Webster No alien mythologies in World Englishes	Jia-Ling Hsu Western cultural images in Chinese-English code-mixed residential real estate advertising in Taiwan	Eiichiro Tsutsui/ Satsuko Oda Developing a curriculum for English education at Japanese elementary schools: a case study	Fran Saunders/ Julie Douglas English as a medium of instruction in South Africa against the backdrop of a policy of eleven official languages: rural children suffer most?	Felixberto Mercado Philippine English in research setting: analyzing research articles in Philippine English	Vineeta Chand Hinglish Identity: Changes in language practices and attitudes in urban Indian	Shih-Yu Chang A sociolinguistics profile of English in Taiwan: 2000- 2008
11:15 – 11:45	Ouyang Yu On third thoughts: pen-notes taken at Kingsbury Lijia Zhang A Tool of Struggle	Daniel R. Davis The Protestant Reformation, vernacular liturgies, and the development of standardized Englishes	Songqing Li Towards a critical-cognitive approach to code-mixing for identity construction in Chinese advertising	Satsuko Oda/ Eiichiro Tsutsui/ Tina Tajima Increasing intelligibility of Japanese English	Sandiso Ngcobo The role of first language in English academic literacy instruction	Richard Powell/ Maya David/ Francisco Dumanig Asian newspaper Englishes: comparing local lexis in outer and expanding circle contexts	Bahram Behin English language teaching: experiencing the diversity in the world	Iori Kobayashi 'English only please, if you can!' Teachers' resistance towards Taiwan's language planning in university classrooms

11:45 – 12:15		Rajeshwari Pandharipande Secular as sacred: English in the Hindu Diaspora in the United States		Deyuan He/ Qunying Zhang 'China English' or native speaker based standard? A study of college teachers' and students' perceptions of the ideal pedagogic model of college English in Mainland China	Khwauli Boster Msiska Challenges and the future of English in the political and socioeconomic integration process within the SADC region	Eden Regala-Flores An examination of the patterns and Functions of Tagalog-English code-switching in two oral discussions	David Robert Hall World Englishes in language teaching	Hsuehching Shih/ Charles Brown What would you like to be called?: emerging English naming conventions in Taiwanese English
12:15 – 12:45				Ke Cheng Genera, origin and relationship to pronunciation: on misspellings in English writings by middle school students	Leketi Makalela Institutionalization trends in Black South African English: A transfer of outer aspect from Bantu languages	Winton Lou Ynion The Pageant English: American colonialism, beauty queens and national boobos in the Philippines	Shin-ying Huang Towards a 'decided' critical turn: critical perspectives and their implications for TESOL and TEFL in Asia	Ian Ying The linguistic, social and cognitive dimensions of multicultural festschriften
Lunch
LT15
14:00 – 15:00	Annual Business Meeting of the International Association for World Englishes All are welcome
	LT1	LT2	LT15	LT16	LT17	LT18	P4701	P4703
	Session 30 Chair: Eric Zee	Session 31 Chair: Shing Yue Sheung	Session 32 Chair: Ian Chow	Session 33 Chair: Olivia Kwong	Session 34 Chair: Haihua Pan	Session 35 Chair: Matthias Gerner	Session 36 Chair: Wai-Sum Lee	Postgraduate Colloquium Chair: Ahmar Mahboob Genevieve Chow Aiqin Feng Gayatri Menon Ni Ni Dimitrios Papalexis Sun Qi Ariel Spigelman
15:15 – 15:45	An Helene Kuppens African-American and Jamaican English in flemish hip hop and reggae media: authenticating subcultural identities	Thi Thanh Ha Do Asian English pragmatics: the case of disagreements in academic discussions	Reiichi Nagakubo A study on subjunctive present in that-clauses in Hong Kong English based on the WordbanksOnline corpus and the International Corpus	Olga Maxwell/ Janet Fletcher Analysis of Indian English diphthongs produced by L1 speakers of Hindi/Punjabi	P. Bhaskaran Nayar English as cultural capital in the global context	John Mountford 'Writing-system', 'spelling system' and 'English' in the home country	Sachiko Nakamura Factors affecting intelligibility of speakers at 'English as an international language' settings: from conference interpreters'

			of English				viewpoints	Meghan Wood
15:45 – 16:15	Jemina Anderson English borrowings in Akan: language enrichment or language death?	Sui Sang Mok/ Marek Kosciielecki The future of 'Hong Kong English' and the criteria for legitimate endonormative varieties	Jane Setter Prosody in Hong Kong English: aspects of speech rhythm and intonation	Lisa Lim Singapore Dreaming, Singapore English and Singapore's languages: How linguistics can be enriched by popular culture	Hiroshi Yoshikawa International intelligibility in semantic and cultural domains: focusing in negative connotation of idiomatic expressions	Rachel Wicaksono/ Chris Hall What is your problem with English? Conversations about English as an international language in UK universities	Vincent BY Ooi The 5-concentric circles model and web Englishes: a lexicogrammatical approach
16:15 – 16:45	Eric A. Anchimbe Projections on (the possible) Cameroon anglophone official language monolingualism	Saraswathy A/P Thurairaj Gender issues on power and discourse strategies on radio broadcasting in Malaysia		Lian Hee Wee Englisher than thou: What Singapore and Hong Kong can tell us about Englishization	Peter Craig Collins The progressive in World Englishes: a corpus-based study	Sorel Friedman English as a first (?), second (?), foreign (?) language in Canada: pedagogical innovations in a Québec university	Ai-ying Yang The expressions of likes and dislikes: a study of internet consumer reviews
Afternoon Tea
LT1
17:15 – 18:45	Official Symposium Chair: Professor Vijay Bhatia World Englishes: Issues and Challenges in the Context of Changing Realities
18:45 – 19:15	Closing Ceremony - Professor Jonathan Webster (Convener) - Professor Daniel R. Davis (IAWE President, 2009-10) - Dr. Danilo T. Dayag , President, Linguistic Society of the Philippines (LSP) - Dr. Marilu Rañosa-Madrugno , LSP Vice President and 2009 Conference Director - Dr. Isabel Pefianco-Martin , LSP Immediate Past President

